Introduction

We hope the Sir George Martin Trust grant has been helpful for your organisation and the people who benefitted from the funding. We would be grateful if you can please complete the questions below so we can better understand the impact of our funding and learn from you. We believe reporting is important for our grant holders as it helps with reflection, taking a step back from the day-to-day, supports planning and helps make the case for future funding. It also gives you the opportunity to tell a story that needs to be heard about the value of your work and the difference it makes. Thank you for taking the time to complete this report form.

As you have submitted this form through your SmartyGrants portal, your contact details and Sir George Martin Trust grant awarded information will automatically be added to your report. Please complete and return this form 6-12 months after receiving the grant, at the time when you are able to share details on the outcomes achieved from the funds. You will be sent an automated email reminder 11 months from when your grant was awarded. *Please note that your organisation will not be able to apply for a future grant if the End of Grant Report has not been received.

The red asterisk indicates the question must be answered.

1. Please tell us about how the funding from the Sir George Martin Trust has helped your organisation and the people who benefitted from the funding. *

Between 0 - 500 words

Question 1 - Please note:

If you would like to, please provide a case study or quotes which demonstrate the difference that has been made.

We have provided an example of a case study template if you would like to use this. Template Case Study.

If you would prefer to attach a Word document summary as an attachment rather than completing the box above, that is absolutely fine. Please ensure all individuals are described anonymously in the case study. Your case study may be used by the Sir George Martin Trust on our website and/or in our Annual Impact Report.

Between 0 - 200 words

5. Please tell us how many people the funding directly benefited. *

Enter numerals, e.g. 1, 10, 100 and not words. Please make this as realistic as possible and a low number is absolutely fine.

6. Please tell us how many people the funding indirectly benefited.

Enter numerals, e.g. 1, 10, 100 and not words. Please make this as realistic as possible and a low number is absolutely fine. Guidance for Qs 6. & 7: e.g. An organisation runs a parenting course though a grant. The course runs for 12 weeks and a group of 9 mums and dads attend each week. Across the families, there are 15 children. Those directly benefitting would be the parents who attended the course (9). Those indirectly benefitting would be the children of the parents who attended the course, who would gain from the learning made by their parents on the course (15).

7. Was this what you expected? If not, can you tell us more.

Between 0 - 200 words

8. Is there anything else you would like to tell us? e.g. learnings from the funded work, the budget, etc.

Between 0 - 300 words

9. Please upload any photos you would like to share with us.

The image/s should show people who have benefitted from the funding. Please ensure that the individuals pictured in the images you have provided (or their parents or guardians if children and young people are included in the images) have given their consent for the images to be shared with the Sir George Martin Trust. The images may be used on our website and/or in our Annual Impact Report.

10. We are always looking for ways to improve and to hear about your experience of working with us. How would you rate our overall grant giving process? Feedback will have no bearing on future applications. *

- ○ 3
- ○ 5

Please consider the entire grant process from finding out about our funding to receiving your funding payment and the reporting process. (1 being poor, 5 being excellent)

11. Following on from the previous question, if you would like to give further feedback on any aspect of working with us, please let us know here. Feedback will have no bearing on future applications.

Between 0 - 300 words. You might like to think about how you found out about our funding and the information provided by us, communicating with us, the application process and submitting your application, acknowledgement of application from us, providing further information to us, grant payment and how long all of these steps took. This information will always be anonymised if shared outside of our organisation.
